Friday Night, Jan. 22-23

I patrolled the neighborhood and completed all listed vacation watch checks. All homes were secure.

I stopped a bicyclist on Jacob Lane at Oak Vista around midnight. He was flying down American River Drive, passing slow cars and failing to stop at stop signs. I determined that he was a nearby resident riding home from his swing shift downtown.

Around 2 a.m., I located a vehicle in the middle of the Chase Bank parking lot at Fair Oaks Boulevard and San Lucas. The car's lights were on and the driver was slumped over in his seat. I determined that he was a Door Dash driver who had fallen asleep.

As I was clearing that call, I observed an older dark Infinity with two occupants creeping around La Sierra Drive. I stopped the car and determined that the driver was a discharged parolee and the passenger was on felony probation. Neither of them lived nearby and neither could explain what they were doing in the area.

I noticed that the passenger was trying to open his door to get out, but was having difficulty because he had something sitting between his legs. I detained both occupants and searched the car. I found a jack on the floorboard in front of the passenger seat with the 3-foot jack handle that had been protruding up between the passenger's legs. The car was full of tools consistent with those used in catalytic converter thefts, but I found no catalytic converters in the car. Although both subjects had widely different stories, they checked clear, so I had to release them. I will report the incident and the two subjects to the Sheriff's Department detective who handles the theft of precious metals.

Saturday-Sunday 10 p.m.-4 a.m., Jan. 23-24

I patrolled the neighborhood and completed all listed vacation watch checks. All homes were secure.

I checked Rio Americano High School and I found some young people there sitting in their cars eating ice cream. I advised them to leave the property.

I checked Ashton Park and the levee access points. All was clear. I monitored major intersections for traffic violations, but observed none. It was a quiet night.
