I noticed a member's house looked like it was undergoing some roof repairs. The home did not have a vacation watch scheduled, but I saw a package being delivered on their doorstep. I emailed them so they knew about it.

Around 8 p.m. I was northbound on Saverien Drive from American River Drive and saw that there were a lot of cars leaving Rio Americano High School. I observed a car parked on Saverien slightly blocking the roadway and bicycle lanes. As I drove by, it appeared that the driver was leaning over. I drove by 30 minutes later again and saw that the car had not moved and the driver was still inside. I called CHP to the scene to assist and the driver was arrested for DUI.

I monitored the intersection at Guildford Court and Ashton Drive opposite Ashton Park, but observed no traffic violations.

I was waved down by a resident on Ashton Drive who had observed possible vehicular lawn damage on a nearby yard. I drove past the property on Ashton. (See below.)

I maintained a heavy presence on Thistlewood during my shift and checked on both the home that had experienced late-night knocking, as well as a vacant home on that street. I saw no suspicious individuals.
