I followed up with a homeowner who inquired about closing off a street for a block party. I sent the homeowner an email with a link to the Sacramento County agency that issues road closure permits for block parties.

There was an audible burglar alarm on Park Place Drive, which was false.

All schools were in service today. There was a large sporting event at Jesuit High School, but no issues.

Many residents were out enjoying the weather and I chatted with several groups of people during my shift.

At 8 p.m., I was waved down by a woman who reported seeing a motorcyclist speeding recklessly down American River Drive from Watt Avenue. I checked the area but could not locate the driver.

At 9:45 p.m. I noticed that a tree on Shelato had been adorned with toilet paper. I believe the same house was similarly T-P'ed last year. Twenty minutes later, I was driving east-bound on Carmello Drive near Linda when I saw a group of teenage boys and girls. I suspected that they might have been the perpetrators, but I didn't see any toilet paper in their hands and they were not doing anything illegal, so I did not stop them.

Sunday 8 a.m.-4 p.m., April 16

I patrolled the neighborhood and completed all 25 listed vacation watch checks. All homes were secure.

One home had a wooden gate that was neatly placed against an adjacent fence. I recalled that this had not been the case when I checked the home during my previous shift. Nothing around the property indicated anything suspicious and there were no signs of a forced entry. So, I notified the owner via email and he advised me that his pool man had found the old, decaying gate lying on the driveway and moved it.

Around 11:30 a.m., I monitored traffic at the 4-way stop at American River Drive and Ashton. I observed no violations.

I responded to an incomplete 911 hang up in the 1100 block of Sand Bar Circle. The homeowners were unaware of the call and said everything was okay.

While patrolling on Thistlewood Way, I was waved down by a resident who was concerned about a vehicle that had been parked there for some weeks without moving. A DMV check showed that it was associated with the adjacent home.

I monitored the intersection at Jacob Lane and Keane Drive, but observed no traffic violations.

All parks and river access also checked clear.

Wednesday 8 a.m.-4 p.m., April 19

I patrolled the neighborhood and completed all listed vacation watch checks. All homes were secure.

I took a report about a residential burglary in the 800 block of Piccadilly Circle that occurred in early March. A door had been kicked in at a vacant house that was being remodeled. No loss was reported.

I stopped a vehicle on Fair Oaks Boulevard near Eastern Avenue for having an expired registration. I warned the driver to correct the problem.

A resident on Piccadilly Circle reported that her mother had parked in front of her house while she was visiting last evening. During the night, someone drilled into the gas tank and emptied it.

I responded to an incomplete 911- call in the 3600 block of Fair Oaks Boulevard. It was false.

It was a quiet afternoon otherwise.

I responded to a resident who reported a problem involving a neighbor. I was able to mediate the issues and both parties left pleased.

Friday 8 a.m.-4 p.m., April 21

I was waved down by a motorist at Wilhaggin Drive and Crondall Drive. He said he was not familiar with the area and needed to drive to Auburn. I provided him with directions.

I responded to a 911 hang-up from a home in the 700 block of Courtlandt Drive. The resident said she had misdialed while making a phone call.

The rest of the shift was quiet.

Friday-Saturday, 8 p.m.-2 a.m., April 21-22

I patrolled the neighborhood and completed all 25 listed vacation watch checks. All homes were secure. One of the homes had an open side gate. I checked the perimeter and everything appeared undisturbed. I closed the gate.

I observed a driver attempting to get into Wyndgate without the proper gate code. I spoke to him and determined that he was at the wrong complex.

Overall it was a quiet night.

Sunday 8 a.m.-4 p.m., April 23

I patrolled the neighborhood and completed all 21 listed vacation watch checks. All homes were secure. At One home on American River Drive, I noticed a boat and trailer that had been parked next to the house in the past was no longer there. I called the homeowner to determine whether the boat had been stolen. He told me that it's his son's boat and that he moved it to another location. He appreciated the call.

I was waved down by a passing motorist to report a bicyclist riding in and out of the roadway on American River Drive near Ashton. I was unable to locate the subject.

I monitored traffic at the 4-way stop at American River Drive and Ashton. I stopped one driver and issued a warning for rolling through the stop sign..

I followed-up on a report of someone living in a grey Ford Focus with an out-of-state license plate parked on Battlewood Way. The area checked clear and I met with the reporting person, who provided me the license plate of the vehicle. I checked for the vehicle throughout my shift, but I never came across it.
