When I came on duty, there was a unit already on scene in the 400 block of Boston Court taking a burglary report. A burglar had entered an unsecured rear yard Thursday night and removed property.

The gates to Rio Americano High School were open, so I had to get teens to leave the campus over the course of my shift.

Around 8 p.m. I checked on a blue Ford Escape in front of Rio Americano High School that a nearby homeowner had reported as possibly being abandoned. The car was currently registered but appeared dusty and had cobwebs on the tires. I did a records search and found that the vehicle appeared to belong to a local transient who has been known to stay in the Rancho Cordova area. I placed a green sticker on the driver side window to warn the owner that he had 72 hours to move the car or it would be towed.

As I patrolled, I stopped to give several children stickers and speak with their parents.

Sunday 8 a.m.-4 p.m., Aug. 7

I patrolled the neighborhood and completed all 14 scheduled vacation watch checks. All homes appeared secure

I responded to a report of an incomplete 911 call from a cell phone on American River Drive. I drove the full length of the street, but observed no one who appeared to need assistance. I went to the address associated with the call, but no one was there.

I was stopped by two women out walking who said they noticed a "pungent smell" coming from behind shrubs on Arden Way near Kingsford. They thought a homeless person may have been behind the shrubs. I checked the area, but did not find anyone. I later responded to another homeowner who reported seeing a homeless person hanging around his house in the general area of Arden Way and Kingsford. Again, I did not locate anyone. Whoever it is may be jumping a fence into a back yard.

I responded to Lake Wilhaggin where residents said two juveniles had insisted on fishing in the small lake there. I spoke to a resident who said he had seen the pair, determined that they did not live there and told them they could not fish. He said no further assistance was needed.

I responded to an email about a transient who has been sleeping by an AT&T box on Arden Way near Kingsford Way. I drove the area multiple times but was unable to locate anyone sleeping there.

I contacted numerous juveniles walking around the area near Rio Americano High School and Ashton Park. There were two reports of loud juvenile activity. The issue mainly involved a group of approximately 40 teens who were driving around in their vehicles looking for a place to party. I was able to make most of them leave the area. They initially gathered at Ashton Park and then Rio, but I cleared them out.
